

Contents

Click on BLUE titles to view papers

Cover pages (195k)

Foreword (8k).....

Steering Committee Members (128k).....

Sponsors (7k).....

Bat Conservation Steering Committee Recommendations (6k).....

What is a Technical Interactive Forum? (12k).....

Kimery C. Vories, USDI Office of Surface Mining, Alton, Illinois

Session 1: Why Do We Protect Mines and Caves? (19k)

Session Chairperson: Val Hildreth-Werker and Jim Werker, National Speleological Society, Hillsboro, New Mexico

Cave and Karst Resources (150k).....

Ronal Kerbo, National Park Service, Denver, Colorado

Importance of Protecting Mines (101k).....

J. Scott Altenbach and Richard E. Sherwin, Department of Biology, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico

Legal Issues Associated with Bat Gate Construction (60k).....

Jim Nieland, U.S. Forest Service, Amboy, Washington and Len Meier, Office of Surface Mining, Alton, Illinois

Management and Protection Issues on Private Land (25k)..... Figures (405k)

Heather Garland, The Nature Conservancy--Tennessee, Nashville, Tennessee

Consequences of Not Protecting the Resource.(6k).....

Mark Mesch, Utah Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining, Salt Lake City, Utah.....

Session 2: Project Planning (13k)

Session Chairperson: Len Meier, Office of Surface Mining, Alton, Illinois

Performing a Needs Assessment for Potential Gating a Cave or Mine (200k).....

Rick Olson, National Park Service, Mammoth Cave, Kentucky

Developing a Project Strategy (22k).....

Susanna Henry, Kofa National Wildlife Refuge, Yuma, Arizona

Bio-Assessment--Determining the Suitability of Mines and Caves for Bats.....

Dr. Patricia Brown, University of California at Los Angeles, Bishop, California

Developing a Cave or Mine Management Plan (32k).....

Amy Fesnock, Pinnacles National Monument, National Park Service, Paicines, California

Bat Gates and NEPA Compliance (31k).....

Fred Sherfy, Office of Surface Mining, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Funding a Bat Gate Project:An Overview of Public and Private Sector

Financial Resources for the Environmental Professional (23k).....

Joseph Kath, Illinois DNR, Division of Natural Heritage, Springfield, Illinois

Cave Gating Partnerships: Success through Careful Planning and Coordination (17k).....

Steve Walker, Bat Conservation International, Austin, Texas

Training Opportunities for Cave and Mine Gaters (29k).....
Jim Kennedy, Bat Conservation International, Austin, Texas

Session 3: Closure Design: Part 1 (8k)

Session Chairperson: John Kretzmann, New Mexico Abandoned Mine Land Bureau, Sante Fe, New Mexico

Bat Roost Protection: Closure Design using Soft Closures (26k)..... Figure (105k)
Debbie and Bob Buecher, National Speleological Society, Tucson, Arizona

Cable Nets for Bat Habitat Preservation (22k)..... Figures (1.4M)
John Kretzmann, New Mexico Mining and Minerals Division, Sante Fe, New Mexico

Solid and Invertebrate Cave Gate Options (19k)..... Figures (1.6M)
Mike Warton, Mike Warton & Associates, Cedar Park, Texas

Culvert Closure Design and Construction (27k)..... Figures (677k)
Jim Langdon, Idaho Panhandle National Forest, Couer d' Alene, Idaho

Protecting Cave Bat Populations with Flyover Barriers (26k).....
Blake Sasse, Arkansas Game & Fish, Little Rock, Arkansas

Session 4: Closure Design: Part 2 (8k)

Session Chairperson: Keith Dunlap, Indiana Karst Conservancy, Indianapolis, Indiana

Ladder Bat Gates (12k) Figures (745k)
Kirk Navo, Colorado Division of Wildlife, Monte Vista, Colorado and Paul Krabacher, Colorado Division of Minerals & Geology, Grand Junction, Colorado

Horizontal Bar Gates - An Overview (21k).....
Dave Dalton, Gating Consultant, Tucson, Arizona

The Angle Iron Bat Gate (16k)..... Figures (541k)
Roy Powers, American Cave Conservation Association, Duffield, Virginia

Rectangular Tube Gating (33k)..... Figures (932k)
Marion Vittetoe, Gating Consultant, Tucson Arizona

Round Bar Manganal Steel "Jail Bar" Bat Gate (19k)..... Figures (1.3M)
Louis Amodt and Mark Mesch, Utah Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining, Salt Lake City, Utah

Bat Cupola Design Considerations (30k)..... Figures (1.1M)
John Kretzmann, New Mexico Mining and Minerals Division, Sante Fe, New Mexico

Characteristics of Materials Used in Cave and Mine Gates (25k).....
Jim Werker, National Speleological Society, Hillsboro, New Mexico

Session 5: Construction Management (7k)

Session Chairperson: Dr. Patricia Brown, University of California at Los Angeles, Bishop, California

Bat Grate Construction/Contract Mangement (64k).....
Paul Krabacher, Colorado Division of Minerals and Geology, Grand Junction, Colorado

Eastern Consultant Perspective (11k)..... Figures (351k)
Kristen Bobo, American Cave Conservation Association, Duffield Virginia

Western Contractor Perspective (26k)..... Figures (1.7M)
Ed Winchester, Frontier Environmental Services, Ridgecrest, California

Partner and Volunteer Logistics (22k)..... Attachments (136k)
Mark Stacy, Indiana DNR, Division of Reclamation, Jasonville, Indiana

Why Investigate Abandoned and Underground Mine Workings? (397k).....
John Burghardt, National Park Service, Mining and Minerals Branch, Denver, Colorado

Bat Gate Construction, On-Site Coordination, and Work (587k).....
Jim Nieland, U.S. Forest Service, Amboy, Washington
Personnel and Qualifications (647k).....
Bob Hall, Bureau of Land Management, Kingman, Arizona

Session 6: Monitoring and Maintenance (7k)

Session Chairperson: Robert Currie, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Asheville, North Carolina

The Response of Bats to Gates (28k).....
J. Scott Altenbach and Richard E. Sherwin, Department of Biology, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico and Shauna Haymond, Holistic Wildlife Services, Rio Rancho, New Mexico
Monitoring the Effectiveness of Bat Compatible Mine Gates (53k).....
Mike Herder, Bureau of Land Management, St. George, Utah
Pre- and Post-Gate Microclimate Monitoring (13k).....
Jim Kennedy, Bat Conservation International, Austin, Texas
Closure Repair and Maintenance (13k).....
Dave Bucknam, Colorado DNR, Minerals & Geology Division, Denver, Colorado
Policies, Management, and Monitoring: Protection of Habitat Using Bat Gates (256k).....
Jim Nieland, U.S. Forest Service, Amboy, Washington
Demonstration of Bat Gate Database (20k).....
Mark Mesch and Paul Wisniewski, Utah Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining, Salt Lake City, Utah and Len Meier, Office of Surface Mining, Alton, Illinois

Poster Presentations (180k).....

Where Do We Go From Here? (5k).....
Forum Participant Recommendations

Survey Results (17k).....
Participant Statistics, Comments, and Individual Recommendations

Appendix 1: Recorded Discussions (86k).....
Edited by Kimery C. Vories, USDI Office of Surface Mining, Alton, Illinois

Participants List (26k).....
Addresses and Phone Numbers